

2012

Fall Conference October 10, 11, & 12

Featured speakers include:

October 10, 2012 – Murray Banks

“Recharge, Reenergize, Refocus—At Our Best So
Our Students Can Be At Their Best”

October 11, 2012 – Steven Layne

“Confessions of a Reading Arsonist”

October 12, 2012 – Brad Cohen “Front of the Class”
(A story about living with Tourette’s Syndrome)

The conference will include breakout sessions on:

ADD/ADHD

RTI

STEM

Title I Fiscal Regulations

After School Programming

Special Education Topics

Reading Make-It/Take-It

Promethean Board and iPad Training

Early Childhood

Instructional Coaching

Student Performance Strategists

LEP/ELL

Common Core Standards

Reading and Math Sessions

The state Title I office will be launching a new website in August that will include all 2012 Fall Conference information. Our goal is to have online registration, a conference brochure, and more information accessible for interested participants.