2003 Outstanding Title I Educator

The Department of Public Instruction, Title I office, is pleased to announce that Beverly Westphal is the recipient of the 2003 Outstanding Title I Educator Award. Bev is a Success for All facilitator at the Minnie H Elementary School in Devils Lake, ND. She recently received the award at the 2003 North Dakota Title I Fall Conference.

Bev was a Title I teacher for 11 years. She is an active member of the IRA and local Reading Council. She is the chair of the schoolwide plan, NCA plan, and the Parent Involvement Plan. Bev is also a presenter at various state and regional conferences.

Nominees for the award were Title I educators who have the respect and admiration of students, parents, and colleagues and play an active and vital role in their school's Title I program. The North Dakota Department of Public Instruction solicited nominations in September. The Title I Committee of Practitioners selected the award winner from the nominations received.

Beverly Westphal was described by those who nominated her as a mentor, an experienced and respected teacher, an advocate for early intervention, and an educational leader in North Dakota. We are so pleased to have Bev represent North Dakota as our 2003-2004 Outstanding Title I Educator.
