2011 Title I Distinguished School Award

The New Rockford-Sheyenne Elementary School was named the recipient of the 2011-2012 Title I Distinguished Schools Award for the state of North Dakota. Each year, the National Association of State Title I Directors sponsors the Title I Distinguished Schools Recognition Program. Schools are selected for outstanding results in one of two categories:

1. Exceptional student performance for two or more consecutive years.
2. Closing the achievement gap between student groups.

The New Rockford-Sheyenne Elementary School was selected for their exceptional student performance for two or more consecutive years.

The North Dakota Title I Committee of Practitioners selected the award winner from the nominations received. The New Rockford-Sheyenne Elementary School will be honored at the National Title I Convention in Seattle, WA in January-February 2012.

State Superintendent, Dr. Wayne G. Sanstead, presents Lynnae Lies, Connie Soderholm, and Shirley Lindstrom from New Rockford-Sheyenne Elementary School with the Title I Distinguished School Award.
