Link	http://www.cec.sped.org/scriptContent/orders/ProductDetail.cfm?section=CEC_Store&pc=P5660
Description	Primarily a screening instrument, the KB is a criterion-referenced test designed to pinpoint specific competency deficiencies. It was standardized on students with mild mental retardation and specific learning disabilities, but can be used, with cautions, with other populations. The Performance Batteries were designed to go a step beyond ascertaining students' knowledge of the LCCE competencies, and to actually assess students' ability to apply the LCCE competencies in their lives. Like the knowledge Battery the Performance Battery is curriculum based.
